

We work with real estate owners and occupiers through all stages of the real estate life cycle. Our real estate experts advise companies, financial institutions, investors, family offices and individuals on real estate investments worldwide.

We have a dedicated practice group that is knowledgeable in all aspects of real estate advisory and valuation, both in the U.S. and abroad.

We provide extensive services in the management, review and coordination of real estate valuations and corporate valuations and allocations. We are prepared to handle any type of residential, commercial, and industrial real estate – complex and less complex.

Recent appraisal assignments consists of appraisals for estate planning or administration purposes, financial reporting and property tax appeal purposes.

We've recently valued manufacturing properties in the Midwest, Southeast and New England, office properties in New York, multi-family properties in Maryland, residential properties in California and hospitality properties in Europe.